Mr. A. O. Marsh, U.S. Pension Agent,
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Respected Sir:--

You will see by the enclosed Obituary Notice, That Sister M. Anthony died on the 7th inst. With great difficulty she signed her Pension Voucher on the 4th, inst., being held up in bed while she wrote her name, which was almost illegible, as you will see by examining the paper.

Now, the question is, shall I be able to cash her check when it comes, if it does, and how will it be signed? It goes without saying that we need the money for her burial expenses, and will be thankful for the necessary information in order to secure it.

Very respectfully,
